

PSD2Outbound GCO Alert - java_arithmetic_exception

PSD2Outbound GCO Alert

PSD2Outbound GCO Alert - java_arithmetic_exception

Why do we have this alert?

- To ensure the applications are running successfully without java_arithmetic_exception.

What does this alert mean?

A java.lang.ArithmeticException is an exception that occurs in Java when an illegal arithmetic operation is performed. This typically happens when you try to divide a number by zero

Impact to customer

- Customer would receive 4xx/5xx error from the response .

Investigation Steps

1. As this is an arithmetic description, typically happens due to incorrect mathematical operation in the code , this has to be raised with RTB team identify the root cause

Remediation steps

- Create a JIRA ticket with RTB team if the issue persist.

Additional Information