

PSD2Outbound GCO Alert- Ora Error Value is too Large

PSD2Outbound GCO Alert-Ora Error Value is too Large

Why do we have this alert?

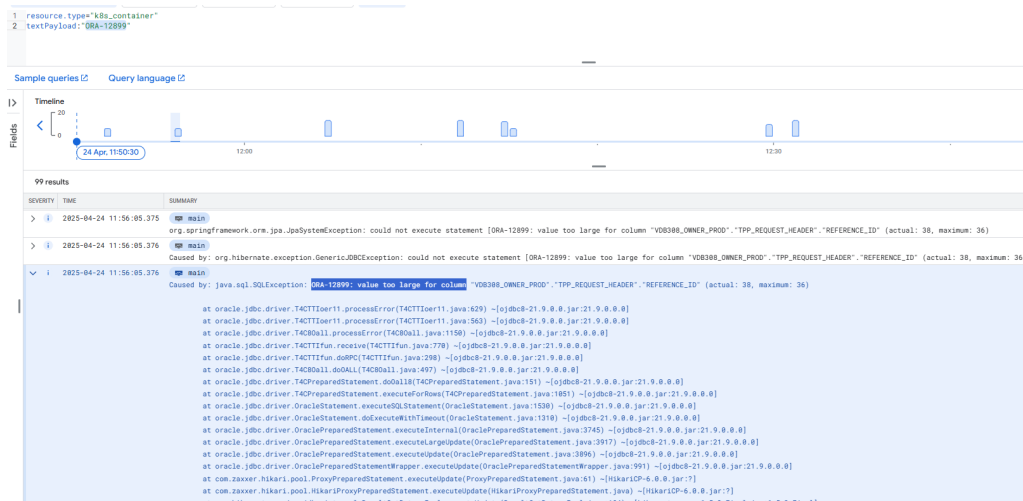

- To ensure the microservices are running successfully without data issue

What does this alert mean?

- Ora Error Value is too Large is a kind of run time exception that is thrown data you're trying to insert exceeds the column's defined length.

Investigation Steps-

- Once you get this alert then go to GCP logs and search for the keyword "ORA-12899: value too large for column" Sample screenshot given below] and try to find out the sample request ID's as well as the specific service for which these errors are triggered.

- Once you get the above details share it with RTB Team for further investigation.
- Check the database to verify the impact of the issue and make sure whether the requests are flowing.

Additional Information-

Contact list - Contact List

Verification Steps-

- Check in GCP logs to confirm no new ORA-12899 errors are appearing after the fix.
- Verify that transactions are now completing successfully without error.