

PSD2Outbound GCO Alert - Cloud SQL Database Disk Utilization

PSD2Outbound GCO Alert - Cloud SQL Database Disk Utilization

Why do we have this alert?

- To keep track of database SQL disk Utilization

What does this alert mean?

To identify if the utilization breaching the threshold.

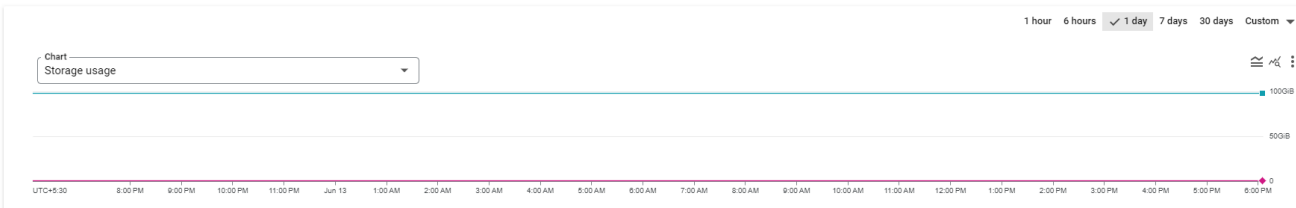

Impact to customer

- Performance degradation, read and write operation performance can degrade.
- Latency will increase for the transactions.
- database may start throwing errors related to insufficient disk space.
- Automated backup may fail due to lack of sufficient disk space.
- Requests may start to timed out.

Investigation Steps

- Go to Cloud console
- Navigate to PostgreSQL overview
- From the overview page check the Storage usage from the drop down.

All instances > psd2ce-outbound-db
psd2ce-outbound-db
PostgreSQL 14

Verification Steps

- Go to Google Cloud Console.
- Navigate to Databases > SQL.
- Click on the SQL instance.
- Scroll down and look for the "Instance summary" or "Monitoring" section.
- Verify that the utilization charts for Disk is under the threshold value.

Additional Information

- Contact Details: Contact List - PSD2 Central Engine - Confluence \(db.com\)